

David Shapiro and Art House Elected to Two-Year Terms on MSBA's Board of Governors

David Shapiro and Arthur House both were elected to two year terms on the Maryland State Bar Association's ("MSBA") Board of Governors. David will be serving his second term as a Governor, while Art will begin his first.

During the first year of their terms, David will serve as the Board of Governor's liaison to the MSBA Health Law Section and Art will serve as the Board of Governor's liaison to the MSBA Intellectual Property Section. The MSBA is a voluntary, non-profit membership organization comprised of nearly 25,000 attorneys and judges. David is a member of the firm's Corporate, Health Law and Employment Law practice groups, and Art is part of the Science & Technology, Corporate and Alternative Dispute Resolution practice groups.
