

Deborah Cohn Presents to 1818 Society

Deborah Cohn gave a presentation at the 1818 Society on Estate Planning for U.S. Citizens, Residents and Non-Residents on January 20, 2015.

The 1818 Society is an organization for World Bank Group retirees and alumni. The purpose of the group is to facilitate contacts among former staff and act as a liaison with the Bank on matters of concern to retirees, such as pensions and health insurance. Several times a year, Debbie presents to various groups at the World Bank on Estate Planning issues. Debbie is a member of the firm's Estate Planning, Estate & Administration, and Tax practice groups.
