

Hayes Edwards Honored as Volunteer of the Year by the Maryland Women's Business Center

We would like to congratulate Hayes Edwards for receiving the 2019 Maryland Women's Business Center (MWBC) Volunteer of the Year award.

Hayes serves as the Pro Bono Counselor for the MWBC, an organization that strives to help women entrepreneurs start, sustain, and grow their businesses. For nearly five years, Hayes has been volunteering with MWBC and helps women entrepreneurs achieve their business goals. Hayes says the best part of volunteering is seeing how people become more familiar and confident with the law, and how it "helps the overall business while protecting them at the same time."

Hayes Edwards is an Associate in the firm's Litigation and Employment Law practice groups.

See more from Hayes about his volunteer work in the award video below.