

Jeffrey Kolender Speaks to MC Foundation Planned Giving Committee

Jeffrey Kolender was among the featured speakers at a recent seminar for financial planners hosted by the Montgomery College Foundation Planned Giving Committee.

Jeffrey, the chair of the firm's Estate Planning and Estate & Trust Administration practice groups, discussed charitable trusts and other charitable gifting options, and offered insights and options for how they can be used to benefit both the charity and the donor.