

Jim Hammerschmidt Named in The Daily Record's 2022 Power List

Paley Rothman proudly announces that Co-President and Employment Law Chair, Jim Hammerschmidt has been named in The Daily Record's 2022 Power List for Business and Employment Law.

The Daily Record created the Power List by conducting industry interviews and narrowing the list down to 25 men and women. The Power List showcases Maryland's power players who are leading key organizations, creating change, impacting the community, and engaging others to succeed.

We are honored to have Jim Hammerschmidt in our firm and as a leading attorney in the Employment Law industry.

Jim Hammerschmidt is Chair of our Employment Law group and a member of our Litigation and Appellate Practice groups. His services include a range of commercial, corporate, and employment counseling and litigation.