

Paula Calimafde Elected a Fellow of the American College of Trust And Estate Counsel

Paula Calimafde has been elected a Fellow of the American College of Trust And Estate Counsel, whose members demonstrate the highest level of integrity, commitment to the profession, competence and experience as trust and estate counselors.

She is also a fellow of the American College of Tax Counsel and a Charter Fellow of the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel, making the chair of the firm's Retirement Plans and Employee Benefits practice groups one of the few attorneys in the entire mid-Atlantic region who is a fellow in all three national organizations.
