

Paula Calimafde is a Moderator and Panelist for a SBCA Webinar

Paley Rothman principal Paula Calimafde, who serves as the chair of the Small Business Council of America (SBCA), was the moderator and a panelist for a recent SBCA webinar, “Supreme Court Decision on Health Care - What an Employer Needs to Know.”

She discussed the likely political ramifications of the Supreme Court ruling to uphold the Health Care Reform law, while other panelists addressed how companies can comply with the law and the potential long-term problems it creates for our health care system.
