

Paula Calimafde Participates in U.S. Small Business Administration Pension Roundtable

Paula Calimafde, the chair of the firm's Retirement Plans, Employee Benefits and Government Relations practice groups, recently participated in the U.S. Small Business Administration Pension Roundtable that included Treasury and IRS officials, representatives of small business associations and private practitioners.

Paula, who chairs the Small Business Council of America, joined with the other panelists in discussing a variety of estate tax, retirement plan and cafeteria plan issues.