

Trish Weaver Published Article On Racial Justice and Allyship in the Maryland Bar Journal

Paley Rothman's Litigation Chair, Trish Weaver, was featured in Volume 3, Issue 3 of the Maryland Bar Journal for her article, " Hello?...hello? Please Answer My Call."

This article invites fellow lawyers to reflect on where they lie on the spectrum of allyship. Trish spotlights the work of the Racial Justice Council and the stunning stats related to systematic racism.

She asks readers "are you outraged?" and encourages them to continue educating themselves and seeking ways they can contribute to creating change.

You can read Trish's piece by visiting or subscribing to the MBJ here.

Trish Weaver is Chair of four of the firms practice groups: Litigation, Appellate, Alternative Dispute Resolution, and Professional Ethics & Discipline. She is also a member of the Corporate practice group.