

Wayne Eig and Robert Maclay Present at MSBA Business Law Section's “Advanced Business Law Institute”

Wayne Eig and Robert Maclay were featured presenters at the MSBA Business Law Section's “Advanced Business Law Institute” on April 22, 2015.

Wayne and Bob's presentation on business succession planning had a particular emphasis on understanding the value of a business and in enhancing value. They explained some of the tools they use to accomplish succession planning for the closely held business, the professional practice and the family owned business, and how generally to deal with what is often the single largest asset in a client's estate. Wayne and Bob are both members of the firm's Corporate, Estate Planning, Estate & Trust Administration and Tax practice groups.
