

Representative Matters: Individual

Over the past 50 years, Paley Rothman has had the honor of representing a variety of clients in an ever widening array of legal matters.

We believe our success speaks to our commitment to our clients in and out of the courtroom. To gain a more in-depth understanding of our work, we have provided a few Representative Matters here on our website. Many of them illustrate our attorneys' experience with specific types of cases while others demonstrate the scope and depth of our capabilities to handle even the most complex legal issue.
