

Returning Employees to the Workplace

Paley Rothman's employment law team hosted a webinar addressing the challenges and questions that many employers are facing as they begin to create an effective return to office model. In this free, one-hour webinar, they discussed vaccination policies, workplace safety, employee pushback, liability, policy updates, employee agreements and issues, COBRA subsidies and more.

A copy of the slides is available to download:

Returning Employees to the Workplace - click to download

A recording of the full webinar can be seen below: