

TOP LAWYERS

The area's star legal talent—including divorce lawyers, criminal defenders, immigration attorneys, and estate planners—in 20 categories

By Marisa M. Kashino / Photographs by Jeff Elkins

WHAT'S SOMETHING COOL YOU KEEP IN YOUR OFFICE?

"The microphone I use to record my podcast, The Divorce Chronicles, which allows me to offer a larger audience insight into the divorce process. I feel it's important to provide valuable content to those going through the emotional challenges of a divorce."

—TRACEY COATES

WHAT'S SOMETHING COOL YOU KEEP IN YOUR OFFICE?

"A bowl given to me by the town of Salem, Massachusetts, for my work defending Guantánamo detainees, which they equated to modern-day witch trials. Every time one argues in the Supreme Court, the court gives the lawyer a quill pen. The 37 quills inside are from all of my arguments."

WHAT'S SOMETHING COOL YOU KEEP IN YOUR OFFICE?

"This Time magazine cover of our client, Christine Blasey Ford, is a reminder to us of the tremendous impact one courageous person can make. What's so powerful about this image is it's composed entirely of the words from Dr. Ford's testimony before Congress. She inspired millions of people around the world to speak their own truths."

JULIE HOTTLE DAY,

WHAT'S SOMETHING COOL YOU KEEP IN YOUR OFFICE?

"This poem about freedom was a gift
after I successfully defended against the deportation
of a Vietnamese national who had been persecuted
by his government.
It reminds me
to fight harder
against oppression
and injustice."
—PARASTOO ZAHEDI

WHAT'S SOMETHING COOL YOU KEEP IN YOUR OFFICE?

"Justice William
Brennan's 1964
opinion in *New York Times v.
Sullivan*, reversing
an all-white jury's verdict against
this advertisement
supporting civil-rights activists. I like being reminded
each day that the power of the First Amendment
protects us all."

HOW WE CREATED THIS LIST: We started in the summer with a survey of the hundreds of attorneys recognized on our 2017 Top Lawyers list, asking whom they consider the best among their peers. We then vetted those results with more research and reporting. Where location isn't mentioned, the attorney practices in DC; where a firm isn't listed, the lawyer is a solo practitioner.

Our capabilities are global,
but our focus is singular.

With a concentration exclusively on employment and labor law, we provide our multi-national clients with a variety of effective strategies and solutions. It's that specialization that allows us to represent companies all over the world.

Managing your legal matters cost-effectively means we're constantly developing new and innovative ways to solve your employment and labor law needs. We believe, when you focus on one thing, and only one thing, experience isn't just inevitable, it's invaluable.

Littler congratulates Jason Branciforte, Alison Davis and Paul Kennedy.

Managing Change with Integrity.

At Feldman Jackson, our entire practice concentrates on family law. Routinely, our cases involve complex financial and valuation issues related to a party's or family's assets and business interests, as well as issues regarding custody of children. With a reputation for integrity, judgment and skill, our attorneys offer clients compassion, guidance, advocacy, and most importantly, a sense of control over their future. We help our clients to manage change with integrity.
